N-queens problem:

A. the problem of placing N chess queens on an N×N chessboard so that no two queens threaten each other.

queens can attack horizontally, vetically and we must consider the diagonals too.